

PAY POLICY STATEMENT 2022-23

Summary Statement

Fylde Council is committed to paying all employees appropriately and fairly through the implementation of recognised and approved job evaluation schemes that have been tested to ensure they are free of any bias. The pay scales for employees at all levels are in the public domain and the Council complies with the requirement to publish data on senior salaries and its entire pay scale in the interests of transparency.

In determining the pay and remuneration of all employees, the Council complies with all relevant employment legislation including the Equality Act 2010; Part Time Employment (Prevention of Less Favourable Treatment) Regulations 2000; and where relevant, the Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Earnings) Regulations.

All Council policies that relate to employment benefits are universally applied unless there is a specific contractual or business reason why they should be limited to a certain group of employees.

Basic Pay

All employee basic pay is determined through pay and grading evaluation schemes with the GLPC scheme for posts up to Chief Officer and the Hays scheme for Chief Officer posts. Both schemes have been tested to ensure that they are free from gender bias and the use of these schemes has been formally agreed with the relevant recognised trade unions.

Pay and grading evaluation panels consist of trained employee representatives to evaluate the job description and person specification for each post which produces a score that equates to a pay grade. Equality is ensured by evaluating the post and not the person.

The Council has adopted a policy to pay the Real Living Wage. The Real Living Wage supplement is applied for Council employees whose total hourly rate is currently less than the National Real Living Wage.

The Council adheres to the National Joint Committee (NJC) pay bargaining arrangements and implements a pay grade scale determined through agreed annual collective agreements negotiated under a national collective bargaining process with trade unions.

All other pay related allowances are the subject of either nationally or locally negotiated rates, having been determined from time to time in accordance with collective bargaining process.

Market Supplements

Market force supplements are only paid to employees and Chief Officers in exceptional circumstances in accordance with the strict controls in the Council's Market Supplements Policy. Any such payments are reviewed at least every six months to ensure they remain valid; the Council has not applied market supplements to any post since the introduction of the pay policy.

Incremental Progression

Progression through the grade for permanent and temporary employees, including Chief Officers, is only possible upon completion of satisfactory service and in line with the NJC terms and conditions, as described in the Green Book.

New Appointments

Appointments to new posts are made at the start of the incremental grade scale, unless there are exceptional circumstances where the most suitable candidate can evidence that such an offer would not reasonably be acceptable and the Council is satisfied that market conditions require the appointment to take place at a higher point, within the pay scale grade, than the start.

Chief Officer and Chief Executive appointment is dealt with by the Chief Officer Employment Committee, using the agreed recruitment procedures and options to select. Any appointments made to a post with a remuneration package of more than £100,000 require ratification by Full Council.

Overtime and Additional Hours Payments and Premium Payments

Contractual overtime and additional hours are paid in accordance with the NJC Terms and Conditions, as described in the Green Book.

Non contractual, voluntary overtime, additional hours payments are paid in accordance with the Council's pay review terms and agreed policy on overtime.

To meet specific operational requirements, it may be necessary for an individual to temporarily take on additional duties, the Council's arrangements for authorising any additional remuneration, e.g. honoraria, ex gratia, 'acting up' relating to temporary additional duties are set out in the Council's personnel code. Any additional payment is subject to formal approval by the statutory Chief Officer panel which include the Head of Paid Services, the Monitoring Officer, and the Section 151 Officer.

Chief Officers are not permitted to be paid overtime, additional hours payments or premium payments.

Bonus Payments and Earn Back Schemes

No employees including Chief Officers in the Council are in receipt of bonus payments or subject to earn back schemes where employees give up some salary to earn it back upon completion of agreed targets. Consideration of any bonus or earn back payments would be subject to a business case and approval by the statutory Chief Officer posts.

Performance Related Pay

The Council does not operate performance related pay schemes for any employees and has no plans to introduce policy to support performance related pay schemes.

Relationship between the Highest and the Lowest Paid

The Council is committed to paying employees based on the recognised job evaluation schemes detailed above, the application of the evaluation schemes determines salary differentials. Pay rates for each grade are published on the Council's website and updated at the start of each financial year in April.

Relationship between the Highest Paid Employee and the Median Salary

The relationship between the highest paid employee and the median salary will be calculated on an annual basis and published on the Council's website alongside the information provided regarding senior manager salaries over £50,000 per annum. The information is updated at the start of each financial year in April.

As part of its overall and ongoing monitoring of alignment with external pay markets, both within and outside the public sector, the Council will use available benchmark information as appropriate. In addition, upon the annual review of this statement, the Council will also monitor any changes in the relevant 'pay multiples' and benchmark against other comparable local authorities.

Charges, Fees and Allowances

The reimbursement of required professional fees for certain occupational groups is covered by the Personnel Code and applies to all relevant employees regardless of grade.

Any other allowances paid to employees regardless of grade are detailed in the appropriate policy and procedures approved by the Council and paid only when necessary for continued delivery of the service activity. Chief Officers do not receive additional allowance payments.

Electoral Fees

The Deputy Chief Executive is the Council's appointed Returning Officer and is personally (not corporately) liable for the management of elections and referenda. The fee payable to the Returning Officer for an UK Parliamentary and any other election or referendum organised nationally is set and paid for from Central Government. The fee payable to the Returning Officer for local elections, local by-elections, for parish and parish by-elections is set by the council.

The Returning Officer's fee for scheduled borough council elections is fixed for the present at £3619.14, which is a figure that represents the fee that was paid for the 2019 borough council elections, adjusted for inflation. After the next general election, the Returning Officer fee for a scheduled borough council election will be varied to match the fee paid to the Returning Officer in respect of the most recent general election and will be subsequently adjusted in line with the fees for general elections.

Pension

Where employees have exercised their statutory right to become members of the Local Government Pension Scheme, the Council is required to contribute to the scheme representing a percentage of the pensionable remuneration due under the contract of employment of that employee. The rate of contribution is set by Actuaries advising the Pension Fund and reviewed on a triennial basis to ensure the scheme is appropriately funded. The employer contribution rates are set by statute and are available from the Payroll Team.

Under the terms of the Flexible Retirement Policy, it is permitted for an employee to be in receipt of a pension and to be paid a salary at the same time. The policy requires a minimum reduction in hours worked of 50% and only employees aged 55 years and older are eligible to apply. Flexible retirement will only be granted in exceptional circumstances when there is a financial benefit to the Authority or extenuating personal circumstances without any cost to the Authority. Flexible retirement is part of the Council's approach to succession planning and is primarily aimed at applying a phased approach to full retirement, employees applying for flexible retirement will be expected to provide a full retirement date.

Redundancy Payments, Severance Payments and Retirement

All employees including Chief Officers are entitled to redundancy payments and pension release in accordance with the Council's Redundancy and Retirement Procedure. Where the proposed severance package is more than £100,000, the decision will be ratified by Full Council.

Re-employment/Re-engagement of Former Employees

The Council has an obligation to ensure that it is managing public monies responsibly and will not normally re-engage (into the same or a very similar role or consultant capacity) ex-employees who have left their prime employment with the Council on the grounds of voluntary or compulsory redundancy, efficiency release or employer consent retirement (where there is a cost to the Council) for a period of 12 months with effect from the date of leaving. This policy does not cover those employees who access their pension via the Council's Flexible Retirement Scheme.

Any proposal to re-engage a former employee that left the Council on the grounds of voluntary or compulsory redundancy, efficiency release or employer consent retirement, within 12 months of the leaving date will require the approval of the statutory Chief Officer panel which include the Head of Paid Services, the Monitoring Officer, and the Section 151 Officer.
