Dear Committee

Re: Dispensation

I, Edward Macdonald, have ran my own business on the Fylde Coast for the last 20 years.

I have recently decided to have a change of career and after thinking long and hard as to which path to take and speaking to various people in many walks to life, I decided on Executive Travel.

On speaking to people within the travel business, and taking on board all their advice, I purchased a new, luxurious, top of the range, Executive Spec Mercedes Viano purely for elite business clients and those who require luxury travel. (Pictures Enclosed)

I will be attending local business seminars, advertising in local business magazines and brochures, and have been using my previous business contact to support this.

Many local business people and dignitaries have already expressed an interest in using my service as they require an "unplated" vehicle due to privacy and discretion. They have advised that having plates in full view would deter corporate clients, CEO's, etc. from using my service.

I Hope that you will find my case a valid one and I look forward to serving people of the Fylde Coast and beyond.

Kind regards

Edward Macdonald
