REPORT

1. It is timely for the committee to review the current appointments to any working groups.
2. Committees can establish their own subject specific working groups to be set up when required in order to advise the parent committee on a particular topic/issue.
3. The table below lists those working groups that relate to the terms of reference of the Public Protection Committee that are currently established.
4. The establishment of working groups is within the responsibility of the individual committees and does not need the approval of Council.

5. It is important that the members nominated to working groups have an appropriate interest in the subject, can commit to positively represent the Council and be available to commit the time to attend the majority of the meetings involved.
6. The members nominated should ideally be a member of the committee to which the matter relates to.
7. The conclusion of any working group would be brought to committee in a formal report.
